

A FAITH RELATIONSHIP

(Joshua 3:9-17) Then Joshua told the Israelites, "Come closer and listen to the words of the Lord your God." He said, "You will know that the living God is among you and that He will certainly dispossess before you the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites, and the Jebusites when the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth goes ahead of you into the Jordan. Now choose 12 men from the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe. When the feet of the priests who carry the ark of the Lord, the Lord of all the earth, come to rest in the Jordan's waters, its waters will be cut off. The water flowing downstream will stand up in a mass." When the people broke camp to cross the Jordan, the priests carried the ark of the covenant ahead of the people. Now the Jordan overflows its banks throughout the harvest season. But as soon as the priests carrying the ark reached the Jordan, their feet touched the water at its edge and the water flowing downstream stood still, rising up in a mass that extended as far as Adam, a city next to Zarethan. The water flowing downstream into Sea of the Arabah (the Dead Sea) was completely cut off, and the people crossed opposite Jericho. The priests carrying the ark of the Lord's covenant stood firmly on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, while all Israel crossed on dry ground until the entire nation had finished crossing the Jordan.

1. God Provides Supply in KEEPING With Our Need

- A. They expected God to meet their specific need.
- B. What is the need you are facing in your life?
- C. Do you expect Him to supply that need?

2. God Provides Supply In PROPORTION to Our Need

- A. Your need is not that big.
- B. God can supply your need.
- C. We should become accustom to asking big.
- D. We should become accustom to expecting big.

3. God Provides Supply At The TIME of Our Need

- A. When the time came to cross the river, the supply would be there.
- B. When the time comes to meet your need, the supply will be there

(15-16) Now the Jordan overflows its banks throughout the harvest season. But as soon as the priests carrying the ark reached the Jordan, their feet touched the water at its edge and the water flowing downstream stood still...